It's physically impossible for me to plan ahead when we buy chicks. I just can't. Even on the years when I know we will be adding to the flock, I still seem to always jump the gun and run to the feed store last minute without much pre-planning. It's a sickness y'all. Take last week, for example.

I have a confession to make. Of all the Singer straight stitch sewing machines, this model is my favorite. It is a straight stitch only, slant shaft sewing machine, and the it was the "lower end economy model" of the 400 series when the Singer 401 was the "top of the line", and the Singer 403 was the mid-range model. Each of these models have the same size, gear driven motors.

I publish fiction and non-fiction, and it's much harder to sell non-fiction than fiction, which is why I was so surprised by how relatively easy it is to sell romance.
