The Australian magpie was first described by English ornithologist John Latham in 1801 as Coracias tibicen, the type collected in the Port Jackson region. Its specific epithet derived from the Latin tibicen "flute-player" or "piper" in reference to the bird's melodious call. An early recorded vernacular name is piping poller, written on a painting by Thomas Watling, one of a group known ...

Source No. 1 â€™ Lady Margaret Boat Club. Members of the Lady Margaret Boat Club (founded in 1825 by twelve members of St. Johnâ€™™s College, Cambridge.) wore bright, scarlet red-colored flannel jackets, and since they blazed they were named Blazers.The club still exists today and keeps with the same tradition. Interestingly, gold buttons as well as piping are only reserved for certain members.

Abstract. The ancient Chinese concept of health reaches far beyond the mere absence of symptoms to include the presence of a strong vital energy known as qi. A smooth, harmonious, and active flow of qi creates harmony in the body and a balanced state of being in the person. This personal health is further matched by health in nature, defined as regular weather patterns and the absence of disasters.
