Yet what if we could? What if our attention could reduce someone's pain? This is the promise of the encounter. Do Good, and Never Forget (Chapter 11) Gradually our big God changes us. And, gratefully, we lust less, love more, lash out less, look heavenward more. We pay bills, pay attention to spouses, pay respect to parents.

"How the World Was Made ... And so it was. For now there were snow geese, and mallards and teal and coots and terns and loons living ... This is good water that You have made, on which we live. But birds are not like fish. Sometimes we get tired swimming. Sometimes we would like to get out of the water."
