This concern is also true for digital fine art papers and inks. In the past there was not as great a concern about archival inks as printers were originally used in the office and not too many employees were concerned if their annual report was going to last 50 or 100 years! With the increasing demand for better art

If you are interested in art, maybe you could call Bethel's art department and briefly chat with the brothers. It would be appropriate in other groups. My father served at Bethel. I believe the brothers would love to speak with you. Of course, I do not know for certain. Speaking objectively, art would be a good career for an active Witness.
